

LINDA LORELLE SCHOLARSHIP FUND PRIVACY POLICY STATEMENT

Privacy Policy

We recognize the importance you place on your privacy and the confidentiality of your financial and personally identifiable information. We think it is important for you to be informed of the policies we have in place to protect your privacy with regard to information we collect and maintain.

We collect nonpublic personal information about you from the following sources:

- Information we receive from you on applications or by other methods including information you choose to submit to us.
- Information we receive from you through donations and/or contributions you make to us.
- Information we receive about you from transaction with us through third parties.

We do not disclose nonpublic personal information about our scholarship applicants, donors or sponsors, nonaffiliated third parties, except as permitted or required by law.

We restrict access to nonpublic personal information about you to only those directors, employees and volunteers who need to know that information in order to provide services to you. We maintain physical, electronic, and procedural safeguards that comply with federal regulations to guard your nonpublic personal information.

When you are simply browsing our web site, you do so without revealing any personal information. While we do not collect personally identifying information about visitors to our site, we do use standard software to collect information for the strict purpose of tracking activity on our site, such as the name of your ISP, the referring web site and the date and time you viewed our site. This allows us to better understand how many people access our site and which pages are most popular.
